Eligibility for NARI membership requires that applicants be actively engaged in the remodeling industry for at least one full year prior to application. Applicants must conduct their business in compliance with the NARI Code of Ethics. Applicants agree to comply with the NARI by-laws. If NARI membership should lapse, all usage of the NARI logo should be eliminated from all vehicles, stationery, business cards and advertisements. Continued use of the NARI name or logo once membership has lapsed will result in a fine of $5,000.00 or $500.00 per each unauthorized use of the NARI name or logo, whichever sum is greater.

The National Association of the Remodeling Industry's Code of Ethics

Each member of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry is pledged to observe high standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of business:

- ✓ By promoting in good faith only those products and services that are known to be functionally and economically sound, and that are known to be consistent with objective standards of health and safety;
- ✓ By making all advertising and sales promotion factually accurate, avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the customer.
- ✓ By writing all contracts and warranties such that they comply with federal, state, and local laws.
- ✓ By promptly acknowledging and taking appropriate action on all customer complaints.
- ✓ By refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition.
- ✓ By attaining and retaining insurance as required by federal, state, and local authorities.
- ✓ By attaining and retaining licensing and/or registration as required by federal, state, and local authorities.

Application for membership authorizes NARI to conduct a reference check subject to relevant public law.
